Ladies and Juniors Day on Saturday. Significant changes to Club Championship scores. Local fishing hotting up. The Club loses a Long standing member.

Fishing

Local

The local fishing scene has had something of a resurgence with better weather, continuing warm water offshore and the annual salmon run beginning.

Dave Messina got amongst the mahis at the PGFC FAD on Anzac Day fishing with fellow member Steve Pettenon. A beautiful day out, very little bird activity but they were lucky enough to hook onto some small tuna and three mahi mahi. A reasonable end to what has been a quiet fishing season off Rottneest.

tackle, and Tim Carson reports tuna south of Parker Point and confirmed the salmon run has begun in Cockburn Sound.

Plenty of great options for the Ladies and Juniors day on 5th.

Ben Weston had a run to the FADs on Sunday (30th) and had a similar experience to Dave with mahis taking anything, but preferring live baits.

Ben Punch reported being smashed up by samsonfish at the D9 in Cockburn Sound at the weekend while trying for snapper on light

Elsewhere

The Jurien Bay FADs were swarming with mahi mahi up to 1.3m last weekend, The crew of Jelomi were treated to some good catches along with baldchin groper whilst bringing the boat back to Fremantle.

Omissions from the last HOOK-UP

In the Hook-Up issue of 24th April following the Shimano WA Open, in the rush to get it out to members, three images, including the one on the front page, should have been attributed to Vince Doran, a photographer from Jurien Bay, who was present on Bottom Line for the duration of the event.

Also missed in the thank you credits was Past President Tim Carson who did a great job behind the scenes with organising and acquiring all the Shimano awards. Members Dylan Picken and Treasurer Dave Littlejohn should also have been recognised for their significant contribution.

Vale David Rosenbrock

The Club lost long time member David Rosenbrock last weekend.

David joined the Club in 1971 and will be remembered as a passionate fisherman and an all round good bloke. He fished on many Club boats including skippering Sir Garrick Agnew's Pannawonica to Cairns and return no less than 13 times, including an eastbound trip in 1975 which took just 8 days.

One of the highlights of his life was fishing with Prince Charles on Pannawonica out of Cairns and angling or skippering for the capture of many grander marlin including 22 of Garrick Agnew's 428 fish.

In recent years David did not enjoy good health and he passed away just 10 days after his 82nd birthday leaving no descendents. Many members will remember him fondly for his companionship and participation in many Club tournaments and social activities over the years.
